

Windsor Elms Village

We Are Building Community Together

The design of the new facility incorporates a new model for living that is resident focused and encourages the development of new relationships within a community setting.

The new Windsor Elms Village demonstrates our commitment to meeting the ongoing needs of older adults and people at risk living in Nova Scotia.

We have been working hard planning for the move on November 2nd !